THE FACTS ABOUT SNACKS

Snacks, those things we eat when it's not quite mealtime. We all love them. We all crave them. Sugary, salty, light or filling, they are a part of our life. The calendar tells us that February is Natural Snack Food month, but let's face it...is there ever a time when a little pre-meal pick-me-up isn't in order? Still, in honor of National Snack Food Month, we've highlighted some of our favorite nosh-ables. Not only are these items listed below seriously tasty, but they're made by companies that treat their workers fairly and give them a voice on the job. Enjoy your snacks and let's all help build a stronger America.
